

Perfect money, or the ... party of friends to
... many times he has told the same
... yet, always with an un-
... lightness of expression and ... quaintness of humor.
... Senator Cockrell's investigating com-
... (the Senate Select Committee,
... which is now probing the methods of ... work in the different Executive De... partments of the Government) has un... dertaken a gigantic task, but it will ... make an elaborate report of its labors
... some time in the future. The Missouri
... Senator is a very conscientious,
... pains-taking man, and he is giving the ... public officers much annoyance and no
... little uneasiness. He wants to know
... (you know) the number of things
... the public don't know, and that Sen... ator Cockrell will have a great deal of ... trouble in finding out is astonish... ing.
... The complaint is often made now ... that there is too much 'red tape,' and ... that the employees of the Government ... have very few hours to work, and very ... little work within these hours as com... pared with persons employed in similar ... capacities by private business concerns.
... But such annoying features are insepar-... ably connected with the theory of ... Government work. It must be put ... through by processes as nearly mechan... ical as possible, so that the death or ... removal of a clerk may not throw an ... entire office out of gear, and so that the ... dishonesty of any one employee will ... be discovered when it is turned over to ... him for the next stage of its pro... cess.
... All this involves the reduction of ... business to infinite detail and its dis... tribution among a multitude of people.
... If Senator Cockrell and his committee ... can find a way of simplifying these
... processes, their discovery will be warmly
... welcomed. The results of their labors
... cannot fail to be of value and will ... certainly be of interest, abounding in ... information which, to the general pub... lic, is now in the nature of a sealed
... book.
... The committee is not expected to ... pass judgement upon the civil service
... law, but to actually operate the ... law and to come under the purview
... of the committee, and the latter will ... be expected to answer such questions as ... the following: Is the Government any ... better served—the public business more ... rapidly expedited, the morals or the ... methods of the several Departments in ... any respect the gainer—now that what ... is called the "spoils system" has been ... done away with?
... It is a matter of no small impor... tance. The people are told that the ... civil service law, in its classified ap... plication, is working wonders of reform,
... but they have only heresy evidence to ... that effect. They are assured that it ... is doing away with a great deal of fa... voritism, relieving the appointing pow... er of much embarrassment, purifying
... the channels of patronage, and elevat... ing the standard of clerical merit.
... They are interested in knowing what ... the civil service reform is really all ... that its friends claim, or whether it is a ... sham and a humbug as its enemies in... sist. Senator Cockrell's committee with ... so good an opportunity could find out
... all about it.
... A Pessimistic Wall.
... Mr. BORROR. For the consolation of ... the water, water! water! I submit the ... first and last annual report of the Dover
... Water Works, and quote from the same:
... note that nothing has been expended for ... construction during the year:
... For interest and operation.....$5,181.68
... Water rents for the year.....$2,122.31
... Now Sir, had the pleasure of conversing ... with those already drowned and with those ... who are on the verge of the great taxable
... deluge, and I will further quote from the same:
... independent report as to the borrowing
... of money and foisting a tax which they ... cannot pay. "The failure to obtain from ... the General Assembly the power so impera-
... tively needed and so often withheld, of ex... tending the water main, is a matter of pro... found regret. This power is necessary ... to enable the water works to supply the ... people of the town, demands that it ... should be given. But the fact remains that ... the principal opposition comes from the peo... ple who would themselves be the parties ben... efited, and mostly from those residing on the ... streets through which it was proposed to ex... tend the main."
... This is only one grievance I gather from
... the report, and I could go on to show from it
... that it would consume nearly as much money
... as already expended, $32,000, before the ... town would be fully equipped. Aside from ... all, the quality of water is inferior and forces
... upon the consumer a heavy tax in the way
... of a supply of water to make it palatable
... during the summer months. As well as are ... necessary of supply to private or public ... buildings, I did not ascertain the exact ... amount realized outside of the public build... ings and the canyons of Richardson & Rob... bins but I am led to believe it would not ... pay for the coal and oil used. Now there ap... pears to be another great hindrance to the ... progress of the town from the number of ... stores and houses for rent that must be ... the waste of proper sewerage, for it is natu... ral and must follow. Let us compare if you ... please a town the size of Dover with its ... numerous industries and population to our own ... and see if there is any consolation. The as... sessed value of Dover is $2,500,000. The ... rate of per cent. after four years of trial, for ... water privilege is 16 cents on $100. Now
... take our assessment, $500,000, at same rate,
... 6 times 16, making 80 cents, providing we ... could recoupe the same demand for its use.
... I think that any reasonable seer after the ... earning of our little savings will concede the ... water works to be a very wise undertaking. I make the ... prediction here that in five years, like New ... Brunswick, Elizabeth and all other towns ... of extravagance, instead of advancing will ... sink below reasonable redemption. Yet, but
... say, we are going to avoid the expenses
... by using the standpipe. If you will allow me ... to show in your next paper the results of ... the standpipe business and I think to the sat... isfaction of all.

PEACH BASKET TALK.
THE SMYRNA MEETING.—THE FREE BASKET QUESTION DISCUSSED IN ALL ITS PHASES.—PAPER BASKETS.
—MR. A. CUMMINS MAKES A FUNNY SPEECH.
A meeting in the interest of peach growers convened in Town Hall, Smyrna, Saturday, April 9th. Mr. Hoffecker in the chair, and E. T. Taylor, Secretary. Speaking limited to ten minutes.
Mr. David Cummins stated that Boston would defer action on free baskets for another year, which gives Boston, Philadelphia and Baltimore as promoters to be governed by the old rule,—returning baskets.
A paper basket manufactured in Chicago, was shown which had been offered in quantities at 4 cents, but an advance was anticipated. Its durability was questioned on account of moisture absorbing properties.
Mr. Alexander Cummins offered resolutions that the Railroad Companies be requested to reduce charges on baskets, and if they refuse so to do that the matter be referred to the Interstate Commerce Board. Baskets must be returned, no matter how cheap or of what material made. No baskets to be given away.
Mr. Naylor discussed the empty basket question, and stated that the expense of peach raising was increasing, and the giving of free baskets cannot be afforded.
It is unjust to ask it. The demand will fix the price, and if no empties be returned, baskets may cost much more than now. The speaker was eloquent and in earnest. Mr. Hudson was called for, but declined saying anything.
Dr. Ashcraft also declined, stating that he was a pill peddler.
Mr. Alexander Cummins offered resolutions to strive to bring buyers to Clayton and to operate with the peach exchange. Also to correspond with the peach growers and to return empties.
The exchange at Clayton will be a branch of the Wyoming Exchange. It was thought best to defer consulting the Railroad authorities for the present.
Mr. Cummins then moved to adopt the 4-basket rule which were used in New York and by the growers in New Jersey.
At all events an understanding as to size of baskets should be had to enable their manufacture.
Mr. A. Cummins opposed the giving away of baskets and boxed down heavily on the New York Commission men, for wanting all they can get and certainly more than they ought to have. He opposed sending fruit to old commission men, and to employ new ones. He was opposed to sending anything to New York, so, long as they act as they have and propose to do.
Mr. Money being present was called for and stated in a business way and few words his views on New York, and his interview with prominent commission men, who are willing to sell at charges when empties are not returned, that will be so much less than the present charges, that when added to the less charges of the carriers, and the Railroad companies will make the whole saving to the shipper about equal to the price paid for the baskets. The remarks of Mr. Money had their effect upon the meeting. Some present saw things differently, and a backing down of the commission men was claimed.
Mr. A. Cummins gave an interesting and laughable account of the visiting commissioner's reception in New York. His car-ricatures and relation of incidents were humorous. He handled the New York gentlemen without gloves, and it was laughable to hear him state that the laughable statements made about him, especially would the President, Mr.
Edwards have enjoyed it.
The meeting was well attended, but very little accomplished and it is very probable that after all the free basket question will drift right.
Sometimes since it was stated that if a full crop of peaches was grown, there would not be baskets enough to ship them in, and that a dealer in Smyrna had refused to furnish a lot for $60 per thousand.
At the meeting it was stated that baskets might advance to as much as eighteen cents or more. These arguments are useless. If a very large crop, the inability to get the fruit to market will not be because baskets cannot be had, or the expense to the farmer be any greater with free baskets. Indeed, if the growers all had each only baskets enough to market three-fourths of the varieties as they mature, it is a question if as much cash, clear cash, would not go in his pockets as if he had shipped all. It is generally the inferior fruit and careless manner of handling it and preparing it for market that lowers the price, increases the expenses and lessens the profits. If packages are scarce and no return of empties expected, so much inferior fruit will not be shipped, but will be sold at home, and the home using by evaporating, etc., is where the successful grower saves his money.
Farmers should meet and consult; they should hold the reins in their own hands, for as a body they are more heavily oppressed than as individuals. Give them unity and they will be the reverse.
—Easter Sunday was observed by all the churches and the congregations were unusually large. The beautiful spring day brought out the inhabitants, and the ladies did not neglect to bring with them did not have their spring bonnets.

Death of William Dean.
William Dean died at 4:50 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, at his home at Newark.
His illness dated back several months, although previous to the last of last Christmas day, when the extensive mill at Newark was burned, he was supposed to be only temporarily indisposed. When the fire occurred he had but recently got through the excitement of a warmly contested election campaign, in which he was at the front from beginning to end, in the interest of the Temperance Reform ticket. The disastrous fire undoubtedly helped to bring on his fatal illness—pneumonia, to which he finally succumbed.
The funeral will take place at 2 o'clock on Saturday afternoon from the late home of the deceased. A train will leave the P.
W. & B. station, Wilmington, at 12:58 o'clock, noon, for Newark, and returning, leave Newark at 11 p. m.
A GIRL FOR ALL.
In order to give all a chance to test and thus be convinced of its wonderful curative powers, Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, Colds, and all other lung troubles, will be given away for a limited time, given away. This offer is not only liberal but shows unbounded faith in the remedy.
All who suffer from Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, or any affection of the Throat, Chest, or Lungs are especially requested to call at J. Gibson Carroll's Drug Store, and get a Trial Bottle Free Large Bottle $1.
Rice's big show continues to attract large audiences, and please the people wonderfully. It gives a first-class performance, and is well worth the liberal patronage it is daily receiving.—Times, Sept. 2, 1885.

The Delaware Peach.
A correspondent writing from Wilmington to the Philadelphia Times under date of April 1, gives the following interesting review of the Delaware peach:
Pennsylvan peach buds, wrapped up warm and covered by no false hint of spring, have passed safely through the equinox, and if the late frosts and the June fall spare them there will be one of the heaviest crops of fruit known since Isaac Reeves, of Delaware City, became the pioneer peach grower of the peninsula more than fifty years ago. The United States Government has lately set up a nest of batteries upon the very spot where Reeves planted his first grafted trees in 1832.
His son Clement, now a resident of Delaware City, has lived to see the peach industry become the chief farming interest of that region and then die out to reap a few miles southward. Isaac Reeves bought his trees of a nurseryman and among them were a number of seedlings which he furnished.
The names trees were given a good place in the very first peach orchard planted in Delaware and they bore excellent fruit. It was called Reeves' Favorite and that particular variety of peach is still one of the finest on the peninsula.
Among Mr. Reeves' neighbors were the Reynolds, the old Major of the fame, and his son Philip, John Williams, Clayton, Anthony and Barney. They and many others planted peach orchards and in a few years the middle hundreds of New Castle county were fairly covered in peach trees.
The early growers became rich and the industry spread itself all over the county; down into Kent and Sussex and across the border into the Eastern Shore counties of Maryland.
From 1840 to 1845 Delaware City was the great peach centre, and many thousands of baskets were shipped there to Philadelphia and New York. Twenty years later New Castle county was still the chief peach growing region, but the centre had shifted fifteen miles southwest to Middletown.
The peach farmers were marvellously prosperous. They built themselves lovely homes, they blossomed out in fine equipages, their sons went to college and their daughters dressed as farmers daughters never dressed before. The stranger who came from across the border working, thirty small farmers of Lower Pennsylvania and the adjoining hill country of New Castle County were established at the mode of life among the peach growers. An income of $5,000 a year from the peach crop was not unusual, and Daniel Orbit, of Odessa, a model Quaker county gentleman, whose father had been a Philadelphia merchant of most enviable reputation, more than once drew $20,000 a year from his orchards.
It seemed perfectly plain to New Castle county farmers that if two hundred peach trees could be made to grow and bear upon an acre of ground the sure way to wealth was to buy more land and plant more peaches. Delaware isn't very big and some of the peach growers would have been glad to own it all. The price of land rose and when the war came it went higher.
Farmers bought at inflated prices and mortgaged the land for security. Then came the period of contracted currency and the market price of farms shrank till the land was scarcely worth its mortgage. To make bad worse the peach lands of New Castle began to fail from exhaustion. Farmers became bankrupt, peach orchards were pulled up by the roots and the peach belt took another shift southwest.
Wyoming, well down in Kent county, is now the centre of the peach region and comparatively few peaches are grown in New Castle county. The exhausted lands are repeating that Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy cured me. R. S. C. Chandler, Lebanon Springs, N. Y. I had Stone in the Bladder and Gravel in the Kidneys. I used Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and am now well.—E. D. Parsons, Rochester, N. Y.
